

TOTALLY DESTROYED

Fort Bragg, a Lumbering Town in Mendocino County.

Berkeley, April 22.—A private letter received today brings the information that Fort Bragg, one of the principal lumbering towns of Mendocino county, was almost totally destroyed as a result of a fire following the earthquake of last Wednesday morning. The bank and other brick buildings were leveled by the temblor and within a few hours fire had completed the work of devastation. One person only of the 5000 inhabitants was killed, but scores were injured.

Relief expeditions were at once sent to Fort Bragg from surrounding towns and villages and the people of the ruined area are being cared for.

ATTENTION KNIGHTS.

All members of the K. of P. Lodge No. 2 are requested to be present at the K. of P. hall, 2 p. m. Tuesday to attend the funeral of Brother Wiesner of Damon Lodge No. 19.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
FAIR ROCK MINING AND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY.

Know all men by these presents: That we, the undersigned, R. B. Higbee and C. M. Higbee, sons of the day of St. Paul, county of Ramsey, and state of Minnesota, being desirous of forming a company for the objects and purposes hereinafter set forth, have this day associated ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation, and do make, sign and acknowledge these, our articles of incorporation, and do certify, state and declare as follows, to-wit:

The corporate name of said company shall be FAIR ROCK MINING AND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, and the names of the incorporators are R. B. Higbee and C. M. Higbee.

The principal place in which the business of the said company, within the territory of Arizona, is to be transacted is at Phoenix.

The name of the agent of this company, upon whom process may be served in any action, suit or proceeding, may be brought against this company is Harvey J. Lee, residing in the city of Phoenix, Territory of Arizona.

The objects and purposes for which said company shall be created are as follows, to-wit:

To acquire by appropriation, discovery, location, lease, license, franchises, grant, gift, devise, bond, option, purchase, conveyance, agreement or otherwise, and to own, hold, possess, enjoy, construct, repair, develop, mine, dredge, work, operate, and exploit gold, silver and other minerals, and to mine or deposit, tunnels, shafts, and other property and any right, title and interest therein, as also such lands, mills, millsites, tunnel sites, buildings, constructions, plants, appliances, equipments, fixtures, dredges, machinery, discoveries, inventions, patents, patent rights, improvements, dump and dump rights, ditches, flumes, pipes and pipe lines, water, ditch, and reservoir rights, or priorities; such railways, tramways and rights of way as may be from their principal work to adjacent streams, railways or highways; easements, appurtenances, privileges, franchises and other property or rights to property, real, personal, or mixed as may be deemed by the directors for the time being to be necessary, desirable and appropriate for the practical working development, mining, dredging, exploitation or enjoyment of any and all of the company's properties acquired or to be acquired; the treatment, concentration, mining, smelting or reduction of ores or minerals and mineral deposits, the receiving, shipping or transportation of ores, minerals or supplies on, to, or from any part of the workings upon the company's properties, or for the accomplishment of any other purpose for which this company is formed; to purchase, own, construct or in any wise possess, use or utilize, and enjoy machinery, dredges or other appliances or devices used for raising and operating gold, silver and other metals from such mines, lodes, ledges, mineral or placer deposits.

To contract for, buy, take, acquire, own, hold, control, and utilize, guarantee and enforce any and all shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, mortgages or other securities or evidence of title, interest, or indebtedness of any person, partnership, company or corporation, private, municipal or governmental.

To buy, sell, hold, use, pledge, loan, and generally deal in or acquire by subscription, purchase, pledge or by the exchange thereof of stocks, bonds or securities, in consideration of work done or labor performed or materials furnished, or by, or for, any other lawful means, or consideration, the whole or any part of the capital stock, notes, bonds, mortgages, debentures or other securities or evidence of title, interest, or indebtedness of any person, partnership, company or corporation, private, municipal or governmental, or whether such business is similar or dissimilar to that of this company.

To aid, promote and assist in such other corporations or other enterprises as may have been or may be organized for the working, mining, dredging or operating placer and lode mines or deposits of gold, silver or other minerals or metals or for the reduction or treatment of ores or other minerals, the extraction of metals or minerals therefrom, the exploitation of patented or other processes for such working, mining, raising gold and silver and other minerals from placer and lode deposits; the production, use, transmission or distribution of power, heat or light and the dealing in land, or to enter into contracts with any person, company, corporation or association within or without the United States of America for any lawful purposes whatever which may, to this company and to its directors, seem necessary or desirable.

To borrow money, and to execute and issue its notes, bonds, debentures, script or other securities therefor.

To grant, bargain, sell, assign, transfer, convey, bond, lease, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise of the whole or any part of its franchises, patents, mineral rights, ores or other property, real, personal or mixed, or any right, title or interest therein, or thereto as and whenever its directors may see fit, and determine, and to do any and all acts and things necessary, incident, appropriate or relating to the foregoing purposes or any of them.

To engage in and carry on a general mercantile business, so far as, in the opinion of the directors, it may be necessary to do so for the purpose of providing provisions and sundries and for use in carrying out the objects herein set forth.

And generally to transact any and all lawful business incident, appurtenant or relative to the various lines of business hereinbefore referred to or any or them herein set forth.

Notarial auditor and the termination thereof shall be twenty-five years thereafter, and its charter rights may be renewed for another period of twenty-five years upon the vote of three-fourths of the stockholders given at a meeting duly called for that purpose.

The affairs of this corporation shall be conducted by a board of directors who shall be elected annually by the stockholders; the number of said directors shall be not less than two nor more than eleven, and the names of those who shall manage the affairs of the company for the first year of its corporate existence, and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified, are R. B. Higbee and C. M. Higbee.

The annual meeting of the stockholders for the election of directors and the transaction of other corporate business shall be held on the second Tuesday of January in each calendar year, and may be held beyond the limits of the territory of Arizona.

The directors' meetings may be held within or without the territory of Arizona, as may be provided by the by-laws, and the right to vote by proxy at the meetings of both stockholders and the directors is hereby established. The directors have the power to elect, designate and appoint such officers and agents of the company as they may consider necessary or expedient, and to remove the same at pleasure and to fix the salary of such officers and agents.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability, direct or contingent, to which this corporation shall at any time be subject or which shall be incurred, either directly or indirectly, by this company, shall in no event exceed in amount or be equal to two-thirds of the said capital stock.

The private property of the stockholders of this corporation shall be and is exempt from all liability for the debts or obligations of this corporation and there shall be no individual liability on the part of the stockholders of said corporation for corporate obligations.

All of the stock of said company shall be non-assessable and all or any part thereof may be issued, full paid, in payment for labor done, or services rendered and performed, or in the purchase of and payments for mines, mineral or placer deposits, mining or other property, or rights thereto, or interest therein, or for water, ditch, or reservoir rights, privileges or priorities, or for mills, most, factories, buildings, machinery or other property as and when deemed by the board of directors to be necessary for the business of the company, and when so issued shall be full paid stock and not liable to any further calls or assessments.

The directors of said company shall have the power to make, alter, amend and repeal such by-laws as they may deem proper for the management of the affairs of the company, not inconsistent with the laws of the territory of Arizona, in witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this seventh day of March, A. D. 1906.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of
K. W. SULLIVAN
T. S. RICHWORTH
Notary Public, Ramsey county, Minn.
My commission expires July 2, 1910.

On this 8th day of March, A. D. 1906, before me, a notary public, in and for said county and state aforesaid, residing therein, duly commissioned and sworn, personally appeared R. B. Higbee and C. M. Higbee, known to me to be the persons described in, and whose names are subscribed to the foregoing instrument, and they acknowledged before me that they executed the same for the purposes and considerations therein expressed, as their free and voluntary act and deed.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and fixed my official seal at my office in the state and county aforesaid, the day and year last above written.
